FROM: John Kopf – Sr. Commercial Product Manager
SUBJECT: EGH Atmospheric Boilers – Product Availability

Weil-McLain is announcing that we will be temporarily suspending order acceptance for our EGH line of Atmospheric Gas Boilers. Availability of EGH boilers is currently limited. In order to accurately communicate shipping information, a decision has been made to offer alternative product solutions. Please use the cross-reference charts below as a guide in your decision making. Note that these are functional equivalent recommendations and may not be form and fit replacements.

Note: AHRI data was previously referenced as I=B=R ratings.

We will continue to provide technical support, parts replacement and warranty service for the existing EGH line. We appreciate your continued loyalty and understanding. Please watch for our communication when we are once again able to accept EGH Boiler orders. Contact your Weil-McLain area office for more information.

*Please Note – We ARE able to accept and ship orders for EGH replacement and repair-only blocks.
